Specific Learning Outcomes

Below is the specific learning outcome for this session:

- I have basic knowledge of the Data Protection Law in Kenya.

Overall Learning Outcome

The overall learning outcome for this session is as follows:

- Evaluate the integrity of data by making decisions on data quality issues.

Overview

The Data Protection Bill 2018 in Kenya is currently going through the legislative process and once the bill comes into law, organizations possessing data will be required to comply with the various requirements stated in the Bill.

As a Data Scientist, it would be important to familiarize yourself with this Bill mainly because it will impact how organizations store, process, transfer and analyse their data.

Through the suggested readings, this session provides a copy of the Draft Bill, a Review and a Summary of the Data Protection Bill 2018 in Kenya.
